

PARENT AND STUDENT AGREEMENT

Parent Agreement

I have read and understand the handbook. I understand there is a financial commitment to being part of a band program and will pay the aforementioned dues without fail. I will make sure to have my child at all mandatory performance in the appropriate attire. I will encourage my child to practice daily and do my best to encourage their success.

Student Agreement

I have read and understand the handbook. I understand that I am making a commitment to myself and my fellow students to become the best musician I can. I understand that there are very high expectations placed upon me. I agree to practice daily. I understand that everyone in my band is relying on me to show up to class and performances prepared. I promise to have a fun time in band learning as much as I can.
